Ecce nunc benedicite Dominum: please see Psalm 117.

This afternoon's organ pieces and hymn tunes are by Samuel Sebastian Wesley, grandson of the famous hymn writer Charles Wesley. August 14 was the 200th anniversary of his birth.

Translation of the Reading in French

He left that place and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. Then Jesus said to them, "Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house." And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief.

(Mark 6:1-6a NRSV)
