1. LORD, YOU have searched me out and known me;*
you know my sitting down and my rising up;
you discern my thoughts fröm a^far.
2. You trace my journeys and my resting pla-ces*
and are acquain-ted with äll my^ways.
3. Indeed, there is not a word on my lips,*
but you, O Lord, know it al-to-gè-ther.
4. You press upon me behind and be-fore*
and lay your hand u-pön me.
5. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;*
it is so high that I can-not at-täin to^it.
12. For you yourself created my in-most parts;*
you knit me together in my mö-ther's^womb.
13. I will thank you because I am marvellous-ly made;*
your works are wonderful, and I knöw it^well.
14. My body was not hidden from you,*
while I was being made in secret
and woven in the depths of thë earth.
15. Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb;
all of them were written in your book;*
they were fashioned day by day,
when as yet there was nöne of^them.
16. How deep I find your thoughts, O God!*
how great is the süm of^them!
Alleluia! ALLELUIA!
17. If I were to count them, they would be more in number
than the sand;*
to count them all, my life span would need to

Translation of the Reading in French

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: "Come, go down to the potter's house, and there I will let you hear my words." So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was working at his wheel. The vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as seemed good to him. Then the word of the LORD came to me: Can I not do with you, O house of Israel, just as this potter has done? says the LORD. Just like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel. At one moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it, but if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I intended to bring on it. And at another moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will build and plant it, but if it does evil in my sight, not listening to my voice, then I will change my mind about the good that I had intended to do to it. Now, therefore, say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Thus says the LORD: Look, I am a potter shaping evil against you and devising a plan against you. Turn now, all of you from your evil way, and amend your ways and your doings. (Jeremiah 18:1-11 NRSV)
