Texts of choir pieces:

Expectans expectavi: This sanctuary of my soul unwitting I keep white and whole, unlatched and lit, if Thou shouldst care to enter or to tarry there. With parted lips and outstretched hands and listening ears thy servant stands. Call thou early, call thou late, to thy great service dedicate. My soul, keep white and whole. (C. H. Sorley)

Evening Hymn: please see Hymn 26.

Translation of the Reading in French

"They came to Bethsaida. Some people brought a blind man to him and begged him to touch him. He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village; and when he had put saliva on his eyes and laid his hands on him, he asked him, "Can you see anything?" And the man looked up and said, "I can see people, but they look like trees, walking." Then Jesus laid his hands on his eyes again; and he looked intently and his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly. Then he sent him away to his home, saying, "Do not even go into the village." Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?" And they answered him, "John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets." He asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered him, "You are the Messiah." And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him."
