Celebrant The Very Rev'd Bertrand Olivier
Preacher The Very Rev'd Bertrand Olivier

We gather today on the unceded territory of the Kanien'keha:ka (Mohawk), at a place called Tio'tia:ke (Montreal), a meeting place for many First Nations. Our acknowledgement stands as a promise to continue the ongoing work of recognition and reconciliation.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Father, we praise thee: through thy Word and Holy Spirit thou didst create all things. Thou hast revealed thy salvation in all the world by sending to us Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. Through thy Holy Spirit thou giveth us a share in thy life and love. Fill us with the vision of thy glory, that we may always serve and praise thee, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

FIRST READING Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: "To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth - when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil.

When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race."

All Thanks be to God.

The Congregation remains seated to say the psalm.

Psalm 8

- 1 Lord our governor, *
how exalted is your name in all the world!
- 2 Out of the mouths of infants and children ***
your majesty is praised above the heavens.
- 3 You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
to quell the enemy and the avenger.
- 4 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, ***
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
- 5 What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
the son of man that you should seek him out?
- 6 You have made him but little lower than the angels; ***
you adorn him with glory and honour;
- 7 You give him mastery over the works of your hands; *
you put all things under his feet;
- 8 All sheep and oxen, ***
even the wild beasts of the field,

- 9 The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.

10 O Lord our governor, *
how exalted is your name in all the world!

SECOND READING Romans 5:1-5

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Please stand

HOLY GOSPEL St. John 16:12-15

Priest The Lord be with you.
All And with thy spirit.

Priest The holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John.
All Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said, "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

Priest The Gospel of Christ.
All Praise be to thee, O Christ.

A collection plate will be passed during the hymn. If you would prefer, you can send your donation by e-transfer to accounting@montrealcathedral.ca. Please indicate your name and address for donations over $20 if you would like a tax receipt. Thank you.

THE PRAYERS & CONFESSION (page 75)

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER (page 78)

Everyone is welcome to receive Communion or a blessing at our services. You can receive both the bread and the wine, or choose only one of them. Dipping the wafer into the chalice is forbidden for epidemiological reasons.

Please come forward to receive the host, maintaining a safe distance from your neighbour. After receiving the host, remove your mask and consume it. You may then either keep your mask off to drink from the chalice or put your mask back on and return to your seat. If you prefer to receive a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest.
